- ✓ Cotton-based soft, breathable fixation pant without legs leaving the user dry and comfortable
- ✓ No seams preventing pressure marks and skin irritation
- ✓ Leakage security provided by elastic knitting construction
- ✓ Underwear-like look for discretion

Product Description

Abri-Fix Cotton is an elastic breathable fixation pant without legs, made mainly from cotton material. Cotton material ensures that moisture leaves the skin, leaving the user dry and comfortable. The pants look like normal underwear. The elastic material and knitting construction holds the pad tight to the body ensuring leakage security. It offers optimal performance for all activity and mobility levels. The seamless knitting technology – an innovative concept in producing clothing almost free of seams - prevents pressure marks and skin irritation. The products can be washed 100 times, therefore have a high cost effectiveness through a longer usage. Abri-Fix Cotton have colour coded waistbands representing size; together with product name, washing instructions and material composition. 75% cotton, 18% polyamide, 7% elastane
